"I became involved with Catholic Charities through Mardi Gras and later served on the Board of Directors. Through the years my husband Bob and I have seen the broad scope of services provided to people of all faiths. We feel that Catholic Charities has been a trusted steward in the community meeting the basic needs of many people."

"Catholic Charities reaches out and assists people from all walks of life, age, religion and culture. Being able to support Catholic Charities in their endeavors is a blessing to me and my family; they are truly good stewards with their resources and I can see the positive results of their efforts here locally."
